TO CHANGE CUSTODY FROM ONE PARENT TO ANOTHER

1. A material change in circumstances under which the child is living with the custodial parent;
2. The living conditions with the custodial parent are adverse to the child's welfare;
3. The Chancellor should find that the overall circumstances in which a child lives have material changed and are likely to remain materially changed for the foreseeable future and, of course, that such change adversely impacts upon the child;
4. What is in the best interest of the child to change custody, for the final analysis is the best interest and the welfare of the child which are the Pole Star considerations.
